'Waltz' comes alive

It has been 40 years since the Band performed their final concert "The Last Waltz" at San Francisco's Winterland Ballroom. In honor of the anniversary and Mill Valley Music's ninth anniversary, Austin de Lone, Jesse Lee Kincaid, Don Zimmer, Neal McDonald, Gary Schueenstuhl, the Marinifidels, Cole Tate, pictured, among others, take the stage Saturday. The show is at 8 p.m. at the Throckmorton Theatre at 142 Throckmorton Ave. in Mill Valley. Tickets are $20 to $35. Call 415-383-9600 or go to throckmortontheatre.org.

Sinister or sweet

Marin Onstage's latest production, "Ideation," tells the story of a group of corporate consultants and their work on a project to save humanity. But, this dark comedy will have you questioning if the consultants are, in fact, do-gooders or if their plan is something more sinister. The show opens Friday and runs through March 4; 8 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays; 2 p.m. matinees Feb. 25 and March 4. All performances are at the Belrose at 1415 Fifth Ave. in San Rafael. Tickets are $12 to $24. Call 415-448-6152 or go to marinonstage.org.
