

The Marin Show Art of the Americas

The Marin Show: Art of the Americas has become the most substantive and extensive showcase focused on the indigenous arts from across North, Central and South America. With more than 200 noted dealers, the show is described as the “Superbowl of Native American art collecting,” bringing together top passionate dealers, collectors, artists, and collectors from across the world. Explore a vast array of both antique and contemporary items for sale including; Native American, Pre-Columbian, Spanish Colonial, Latin American and Western art and collectibles.

