Welcome to the 24th Annual Marin Show: Art of the Americas

It is the enduring support of both exhibitor and patron that allow a show it’s longevity. I would like to take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude for your part in making this show not only the largest of it’s kind in the world, but also one of incredible quality. These are things we can all take pride in.

The goal to increase awareness and appreciation of Native American Art as a true art form is carried on through this show and reflected in the many collectors, both new and seasoned, who attend from all over. We are here to share the fine balance of beauty and function expressed by native cultures, past and present, and the appreciation of that beauty is what connects us all.

It is truly a pleasure to be involved in this wonderful community of art dealers and collectors. I look forward to many more years of working together.

Enjoy the show!

Kim R Martindale
President
KR Martindale Show Management
Dear Patrons,

We always look forward to our participation in the Annual Marin Indian Art Show at the Marin Civic Center. The Marin Indian Art Show is an exciting venue to experience the expressive art and skilled craftsmanship of Native Americans. We are particularly excited this year because of our event on Saturday evening, February 23rd. In association with Kim Martindale, the Museum is proud to present a Native American Dress Show at 6:30 p.m. in the Showcase Theater at the Exhibit Hall. The show will be an educational experience for the audience featuring both historic regalia and works by contemporary Native American designers modeled by Native American participants. There also be dancing and storytelling. The event will benefit the Marin Museum of the American Indian. Tickets are $25. We look forward to seeing you there.

We have been providing the Bay Area with exhibits and classes that honor Native People’s culture and history continuously for forty-one years. We encourage Bay Area residents to tell others about this special Museum that resides in Miwok Park, a Coast Miwok village site, in Novato. Upstairs in the gallery is a museum bookstore with books, dream catchers, totem stones, teas, stave games and more. We also have a research library at the Museum that is continuing expanding.

Our current exhibit, Masks of the Americas, An Exhibition of Contemporary Native American & Southwest Masks by California Artist Becky Olivera Schultz and Traditional Masks from the Collection of The Museum of the American Indian, will be on display through April 2008. This is a spectacular exhibit and we are very honored to have Ms. Schultz’s work on display.

We thank Kim Martindale for his inclusion of the Museum in the Marin Indian Art Show and the opportunity to let others know about the Museum’s programs and exhibits. Come and visit us at the Museum! I look forward to seeing at the show and at the Museum.

Respectfully,

Colleen Hicks
Executive Director

The Marin Show: Art of the Americas

I am delighted to extend my warmest greetings to all who have gathered for the Marin Show: Art of the Americas.

California is honored to host spectacular cultural events like the Marin Show. Through the arts, we celebrate the highest ideals and cultural richness of our society. I extend a heartfelt appreciation for your enduring contributions to the arts and cultures of the Americas and for broadening understanding and appreciation of the arts.

On behalf of all Californians, please accept my best wishes for a memorable and an enjoyable art show.

Sincerely,

Arnold Schwarzenegger
Dearest Marin Show Art of the Americas Attendees,

It is our absolute pleasure to have both the staff and attendees of the Marin Show Art of the Americas back with us in 2008. We have been delighted to host this show at the Embassy Suites Hotel for the past 13 years and look forward to it each and every year. We value you as we do all of our guests, but also for the beautiful industry that you are all a part of. It is an honor to be a part of your event.

On behalf of our entire team here at the Embassy Suites Hotel San Rafael – Marin County, Welcome Back! We hope that you enjoy our newly renovated hotel, the art show, relax in the serene surroundings within our hotel, make new friends and create mutually beneficial opportunities.

Warm Regards,

Naomi C. Briones
Director of Sales and Marketing

Dressed to Kill: Horse Masking of the Plains & Plateau Indians
A Lecture by Winfield Coleman

Sunday February 24, 2008 11AM | Marin Center, San Rafael

Artist, scholar and published author, Mr. Coleman will speak on masking in the broad sense, focusing on the horse mask but also touching on various other accouterments especially, horse paints and the historical origins of these components.

Winfield Coleman has published numerous articles on American Indian culture, and illustrated museum catalogs and ethnographic books. He is a contributor to the award winning book, American Indian Horse Masks (Hawk Hill Press, 2006). From 2002 to 2005 he was Curatorial Assistant at the Cantor Art Center, Stanford University. He also is a board member of the Friends of Ethnic Art.

For Collectors of the Fine and Decorative Arts.

THE NEW ART & ANTIQUES is edited for the serious art aficionado, a reader whose passion is acquiring and living with art, antiques and fine collectibles. The magazine’s aim is to inspire interest in the fine and decorative arts through informed news and commentary, exciting discovery articles, and in-depth features that showcase beautiful and important treasures, frequently in the context of collectors’ homes. Our new editorial focus is enhanced by an elegant new design, a wider trim size, and heavier, more luxurious paper. By creating a truly refined environment in which connoisseurship is cultivated and curiosity is rewarded, the new Art & Antiques delivers a community of collectors and connoisseurs whose love of the arts and appreciation for an excellent magazine is without parallel.
Southwest Art Magazine proudly supports the 24th Annual Marin Show: Art of the Americas

The 2008 ATADA Directory is now an online marketplace

www.atada.org has become ATADA’s own internet gallery, offering selections from many of the world’s top tribal and American Indian art galleries and dealers.

Images will be changed as often as once a month, so collectors can see our members’ newest acquisitions.

Members also receive the quarterly ATADA News, must-reading for dealers and collectors, and have access to members-only group property insurance.
